The Isle of Mauritius

The enchanting island of Mauritius represents all that tropical dreams are made of; endless stretches of stunning white sandy beaches lapped by azure seas rich with exotic marine life, set against a backdrop of swaying palm trees and mountainous forests. A warm welcome will also be assured from the local people, a blend of diverse cultures drawn from their ancestral homes, a rich heritage also reflected in the cuisine, a tantalising blend of Chinese, Indian, French and African fare.

Watersports - World-class Spas - Championship Golf Courses - Big Game fishing - Shopping

Activities and Attractions

The protection of a coral reef encircling the island creates gentle warm seas suitable for swimmers of all abilities whilst also creating a perfect environment for a host of watersports from scuba-diving to water-skiing. Those interested in deep sea fishing can search off-shore for species including the blue or black marlin, shark, yellow tuna and barracuda.

Activities are not just focused off the 200 mile coastline however, with world-class Golf courses such as Le Touessrok's Isle aux Cerfs, situated on its own tropical island. Several other hotels we feature also have excellent courses, including Le Paradis and One&Only Le Saint Géran.

A lush, volcanic interior also beckons for exploration, such as The Black River Gorges National Park which is a haven of native rainforest and diverse flora and fauna. Whilst giant waterlilies may be a feature at the Pamplemousses Botanical Gardens, it is the crocodiles and giant free-roaming tortoises that attract visitors to the Vanille Reserve des Mascareignes.

The island's shopping is enhanced by the diversity and quality of the goods for sale. Mauritius has an enviable reputation for textiles production and leading brands of shirts, suits, dresses and swimwear are sold at excellent prices, whilst local basketwork, embroidery and pottery also make delightful souvenirs.

For those seeking tranquility and well-being, there are some heavenly Spa's at many of the luxurious resorts. The most famous include those at One&Only Le Saint Géran, Le Prince Maurice and The Residence.

Accommodation

The standard of accommodation on the island is superb, from hotels inspired by the turn-of-the-century plantation houses to thatched villas on stilts over water. Please note that during July and August we recommend hotels sheltered from the Atlantic breeze, either set within a bay or on the Western shores of the Island.

We are also delighted to introduce the island of Reunion as well as 'Magic Sails', enabling clients to explore hidden lagoons and beaches whilst staying on luxurious catamaran for 2 nights. Please enquire for further details.
